Writing seminar scheduled June 10 at NDSCS

WAHPETON — Author Peter Davidson will present a seminar, “How To Write a Children’s Picture Book,” at the North Dakota State College of Science on Tuesday, June 10. This seminar is for anyone interested in writing and/or illustrating children’s picture books for possible publication.

The seminar is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Riley Hall on the NDSCS campus. Cost of the seminar is $49.

Davidson’s topics include: definition of a children’s picture book, developing an idea, plotting the book, writing the book, illustrating the book, typing the manuscript, copyrighting your work, locating potential publishers, marketing your work, and contract terms.

Davidson has authored 23 books, including eight children’s picture books and other types of works that have been published by McGraw-Hill Book Company, Perigee/Putnam Publishers, Haworth Press and others. His latest book is a novel, Okoboji.

Davidson has presented over 500 writer’s seminars nationwide and has appeared on over 85 radio and television programs. The trademark of his seminars is that they are practical — participants will receive a great deal of information that is useful and can be put into practice.
