

RMCFI

The Rocky Mountain Coal Mining Institute

Arizona, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, Texas, Utah and Wyoming

TECH SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

The following are the scholarship criteria. Each applicant MUST be:

1. A first-year student at a two-year Technical/Trade School in good standing at the time of selection;
2. Both a U.S. citizen and a legal resident of one of the Rocky Mountain Coal Mining Institute (RMCFI) member states – Arizona, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, Texas, Utah, or Wyoming;
3. Studying an applicable trade; and
4. Interested in coal as a career path.

Scholarship selection is managed as follows:

1. The RMCFI Scholarship Chairman will distribute scholarship applications to interested technical/trade institutions. Nominations will be accepted only from students meeting the scholarship criteria.
2. It is the intention of the RMCFI to award a scholarship to a resident candidate from each member state as listed above. Applications from each state will be reviewed and rated by the RMCFI Scholarship Committee. Interview of top candidates by RMCFI Chairman may be conducted. However, if there is no candidate acceptable to the RMCFI Scholarship Committee from a particular state, no award will be given for that state.

Scholarship presentation is handled as follows:

1. The monetary value of the scholarship, as set annually by the RMCFI Board of Directors, is sent directly to the college, university or technical school to be used as tuition credit for the winner. The 2018 Scholarship value is $1,000 for one year.

Application deadline is February 1, 2018. No applications will be accepted after that date. Interviews of prospective candidates will be conducted in February. Scholarship winners will be selected and notified in late March 2018.

Please contact the RMCFI office at 303/948-3300 if you have questions regarding the scholarship program. We appreciate your interest.
