

ENGL 240 World Literature Masterpieces 3 Credits

Course Description

World Literature explores the literature of varied cultures from ancient to modern times. Readings include selected works from many cultures, genres and epochs including selections from India, Asia, Africa, Europe and the Americas.

Required Materials

- All required readings will be found within the online course
- Students should have access to the internet at least 3 or more hours per week so they have adequate access to the class blog and online materials.
- An email account that will be checked often in order to receive class announcements
- Students should back-up their files on a USB, and additional source like an email account and on their own computers

Contact Coleen at the NDSCS Bookstore for the most current textbook information (1-800-342-4325, ext. 2239 or coleen.thoe@ndscs.edu). You may also visit the NDSCS Bookstore web site at www.ndscsbookstore.com and search for book information by class by clicking the "Textbook" tab.

Goals and Objectives

One specific objective will be to bridge the then and now, them and us; to teach students to relate to the social experiences of other cultures and perspectives. Students, while reading, criticizing, and discussing the assigned works, will develop and appreciation of these cultures and their historic contributions to thought and literature.

In addition, students will:

- Improve analytical and critical skills through close readings of texts.
- Improve writing skills through composing original compositions using textual evidence to support assertions.
- Read, outline and discuss literature from 6 of the 7 continents. This variety also includes different genres and time periods.
- Participate in group discussion/reading activities, projects, and other activities to encourage teamwork and investigative skills.
- Interpret literature in a variety of different ways.
- List, recognize and name authors and their significant works from a variety of world cultures.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the relationships between literature and life through class discussions, reading activities, and composing critical essays.
- Connect their lives with the lessons, lives and words from world authors and world masterpieces.

Course Policies and Procedures

Access Policy: Computer Failures and Viruses

Online students must maintain computer access at all times to the online course. Lack of computer access as an excuse for late work or missed exam/quiz will NOT be accepted. Review the Computer Access Policy to learn how you can take a proactive approach to your online success.

Student Attendance

Regular attendance and completion of all assignments, on time and as scheduled, is important to your success in this course. An online student who does not regularly attend their online class for a period of seven consecutive days may be dropped from the course. Attendance is evidenced by weekly completion of assignments and/or participation in online discussions. Efforts to contact inactive students are attempted as soon as each semester begins; however, if there is no response from the student and inactivity continues, a drop will be enacted. See the entire NDSCS Attendance Policy at www.ndscs.edu/online-attendance.

If your instructor is unexpectedly unavailable and may be delayed in reviewing or correcting assignments, you will be notified of this as a sign of courtesy and respect.

Online Student Participation and Conduct Guidelines

The practices of courtesy and respect that apply in the traditional classroom also apply online. However, the expectations and practice differ in the online classroom to greater extent. Review the Online Student Participation and Conduct Guidelines (Appendix A) to learn of these expectations.

Assignments

Assignments and quizzes within each chapter are due within specified time frames. Refer to the Schedule for specific due dates.

Any of the following will result in zero earned points

- Assignments or quizzes submitted late
- If a paper requires over 1000 words, a paper containing less will be considered incomplete
- Lack of parenthetical citations and/or lack of a Works Cited page when a source(s) has been used (Cite information that is not your own – even if you just summarize a web site.)

Be prepared to spend at least four (4) hours per week in the online class, studying, and completing assignments.

Submitting Assignments

All assignments should be turned in via Dropbox unless otherwise specified. You are strongly encouraged to make hard copies of your assignments and communications with the instructor to avoid losing data in the case of technical issues. At the first sign of problems, contact your Internet Service Provider (ISP) immediately.

It is your responsibility to access the class on another computer in the event of hardware or software problems. If your problems are not cleared up within 12 hours, contact the instructor to make other arrangements.

Grading Policy

This course is based loosely on a 1000-point total. These points will be divided as such (assignments are subject to revision or even deletion):

- a) Three individual papers (50-100 points each) – 150-300 points
- b) One individual author project – 100 points
- c) One final project/collage – 50 points
- d) Reading Activities (30pts per unit x 14 units) – around 400 points
- e) Peer Review Sessions (20pts x 2 – Papers 1/2) – 40 points
- f) Bonus Quizzes and Syllabus Quiz

Grading Scale

Letter grades will be awarded as follows:

LETTER GRADE	PERCENT
A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	Below 60%

Reading Activity/Group Discussion Grading Criteria

Reading Activities

You are expected to respond to literature and discuss that literature with your classmates in this class. You will do so by posting to the Reading Activity tab within the course at least 3 times per week. Each week has a different reading activity. Some are simple, like posting your own reflections that must be relevant and substantive (10+ sentences in length) and some are more complex. Responses to classmates must also be relevant and substantive (more than “I agree” or “I like what you said.”). Please plan your readings and postings accordingly. Each week is typically worth 30 points, unless otherwise specified. Please see below:

10/30 pts	20/30 pts	30/30 pts
One quality posting before the deadline, 10+ sentences in length.	Two quality posting before the deadline, 10+ sentences in length.	Three quality posting before the deadline, 10+ sentences in length.

Student-Instructor Communications

While an online class is available 24 hours a day and offers greater flexibility for the student and instructor, keep in mind that your instructor will not be available 24 hours a day. Instructors will check email, voicemail, and Cyber Office messages on a regular basis, but there may be times when they are unavailable due to other commitments and job responsibilities. Email, voicemail, or Cyber Office Messages will be responded to as time allows. As a general rule, you can expect your direct questions to be answered within 24 hours during week days.

When sending an email, please include your full name so your instructor knows who they are responding to. Often, the email address does not indicate who is sending the message.

Student E-Mail Accounts

NDSCS students are to use an NDSCS email account exclusively to ensure the lines of communication with your instructor and NDSCS are not broken, which often happens with other email providers. You can access your email account by following instructions at www.ndscs.edu/lt-Setup. If you need help accessing your NDSCS email, contact the NDSCS IT Service Desk at 800-342-4325 ext 3333 or ndscs.servicedesk@ndscs.edu.

To make your NDSCS email account your preferred email address, log into your CampusConnection account and check the “preferred” box by campus email.

The NDSCS e-mail system provides students with an entire suite of services such as:

- 10 GB storage for email
- Instant messaging through Skype for Business
- Rich calendaring
- Photo sharing
- Multi-browser support
- SMS alerts to mobile phones

Academic Integrity

Integrity is an NDSCS core value and there is an expectation that all students, as members of the college community, adhere to the highest levels of academic integrity.

Dishonesty in class, laboratory, shop work or tests is regarded as a serious offense and is subject to disciplinary action by the instructor and dean of the respective division. For more information, refer to the NDSCS Student Planner or College Catalog under College Policies and Basic Regulations of Conduct (page 32).

Types of Misconduct

Cheating: Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise.

Fabrication: Intentionally and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.

Facilitating academic dishonesty: Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.

Plagiarism: Intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one’s own in any academic exercise.

Disabilities and Special Needs

If you have a disability for which you are or may be requesting an accommodation, you are encouraged to contact both your instructor and the Student Accessibility Coordinator (phone 671-2623, or toll-free 1-800-342-4325 ext. 3-2623) as early as possible in the term.

APPENDIX A

ONLINE STUDENT PARTICIPATION AND CONDUCT GUIDELINES

Online courses are based on the premise that students learn best in a community. The instructor plays an important role, but this is a different role than most instructors play in the traditional, face-to-face classroom. While you may see a shift in the way classes work, you'll also notice that some things don't change: the practices of courtesy and respect that apply in the ordinary classroom also apply online, and may actually require more attention in this venue. Here are some guidelines:

1. Get involved. In the online environment, it's not enough to show up! Your voice must be heard in order to show your presence. Your comments are needed to add to the information, the shared learning, and the sense of community in each class.
2. Be persistent. Remember that for many this is a fairly new environment. Each instructor still sets the rules, and you need to abide by them; however, if you run into any difficulties, don't wait! Send your instructor an email immediately or post in the Discussion Area. Most problems are easily solved, but your instructor and your fellow students need to hear from you before they can help.
3. Share tips, helps, and questions. For many, taking online courses is a new experience. There are no dumb questions, and even if you think your solution is obvious, please share it by posting it in the Discussion Area. For every student who asks a question, there are 10 others wanting to know the same thing.
4. Think before you push the Send button. Did you say just what you meant? How will the person on the other end read the words? While you can't anticipate all reactions, do read over what you've written before you send it.
5. Consider the context. Remember that we can't see the grin on your face when you make a sarcastic comment, we can't see the concern on your face if you only say a couple of words, and we can't read your mind and fill in the gaps if you abbreviate your comments. So: help us "see" you by explaining your ideas fully.
6. Ask for feedback. Not sure how your ideas and comments will be taken? Remember there's a person on the other side. If you disagree with what someone has said, practice all your communication skills as you express that disagreement. "Flaming," or flying off the handle and ranting at someone is unacceptable; it is the equivalent of having a tantrum, something most of us wouldn't do in an onsite, face to face classroom.
7. Act with respect. Any discriminatory, derogatory or inappropriate comments are unacceptable and subject to the same disciplinary action that they would receive if they occurred in the face to face classroom. If you have concerns about something that has been said, please contact your instructor.
8. Exercise integrity. Plagiarism, cheating, and other violations of ethical student behavior are serious actions in a learning community. See Academic Integrity Policy in the course syllabus.
9. Recognize the consequences. Consequences of online student behavior that contradicts the NDSCS Academic Integrity policy will be addressed on an individual basis and in accordance with NDSCS Academic Integrity policy. Refer to the NDSCS Student Planner or College Catalog for more information.
